Biography

"Who the fuck is HENK?" Not only a great line from an even better song but a valid question. HENK is a German/Dutch Hard Rock band which comes together to do what they love - Play music and write songs.

Okay, so loads of people do that but HENK does it better than most.

They show their true flair and passion for music in their lyrics and in their performances. In 2010 Tim Tóth (Guitar), Jakob Jösch (Vocals), Hendrik Thillmann (Bass), Tobias Dümpelfeld (Drums) and Til Sarholz (Guitar) formed their band and they have gone from strength to strength! After the release of their first EP, HENK'S BASEMENT, Radio Bob voted them to be a Featured Artist. Because of the airplay HENK got after this, they could tour through Germany and play the first festivals. Short time after this tour, the dutch radio station KINK FM started to play HENK as well and the band got to play their first gigs in Holland. They toured here for a little while and are well known for the impressive live shows and fun they bring to the stage.

HENK is a solid group that tear up a stage better than the rock legends! They have an edgy look, they interact with their audience and most importantly they always give their all.....great music, great guys, great stage presence.....the next immortalized rock gods!
