

Dawn Ahead

Actual LINE-UP:

Christian 'Chrischaan' Wilsberg (vocals)
Thomas Wolf (guitar)
Marcel Martin (guitar)
Patrick Samarzija (bass)
Jan Bechtloff (drums)

Bio:

Dawn Ahead was originally founded between 2012 and 2014 by guitarist and songwriter Thomas Wolf, Colombian bassist Alfonso "Pocho" Mejia, drummer Jan Bechtloff, guitarist and songwriter Marcel Martin and vocalist Chrischaan Wilsberg.

First songs were written and recorded by themselves in their home studios. Shortly after, rehearsals began. Dawn Ahead follows an unconventional style, which includes classic elements of Thrash Metal, combined with modern sounds. The extremely versatile musical range of classical but very hard metal, progressive elements, all the way to brutal Thrash and even some Death Metal influences, keeps every metal fan on the edge of their seats.

In April 2014 Dawn Ahead released their self-titled 5 track EP.

On April 2018 the new 6-Track EP "A Trip Of Violence" was released. "A Trip Of Violence" turned out to be much more aggressive than the first release.

In 2019 Bassist Alfonso "Pocho" Mejia left the Band to pursue his own professional future. Alfonso "Pocho" Mejia was replaced by Patrick Samarzija in Summer 2020.

For 2021, Dawn Ahead have finally scheduled their first full-length album, tentatively titled "Fallen Anthems". The album features every Dawn Ahead trademark amped up to eleven. Extreme brutality, neckbreaking riffs, soaring solos, yet still very catchy and anthemic, the song material sees the band surpassing each of their former releases and deliver an untraditional, but exciting and wild ride through everything you love about Metal!
