

You can't pin us down as just another Indie Folk Band with aaaahs and uuuhhs in all the right places, with four to the floor bass drum and claps on two and four. Don't get us wrong. We are that, too. But we also incorporate influences from all the moments of our lives. The Indie

Rock anthem we grew up with. The indie pop vibes we danced to through the night. The 60s and 70s folk our dad got us into that made us pick up the guitar in the first place. And all the nature and travel themed atmospheric indie folk poems from today. We are all that. As Walt Whitman would say: We contain multitudes.

Featured on Deutschlandfunk Kultur's "Soundscout" in 2025. Semifinalists of the prestigious SPH Music Masters in 2021. 2nd place in Regio.Music.Spot. Known from stages such as Schlossgrabenfest, Stoffel, Tübingen Lauscht, Das Bett, Elfer, Franz.K, Kurfürstliches Schloss Mainz and Berger Straßenfest

Jetlagged sound like a blend of Glen Hansard, Dermot Kennedy and Mighty Oaks. They have performed alongside musicians such as Nada Surf, Wincent Weiß or Enno Bunger across stages in Germany, Europe and the US.
