The man on the far left is wearing a fedora and sunglasses. The man next to him is also wearing a fedora and sunglasses. The woman in the center is smiling. The man on the far right is wearing a black jacket and sunglasses. The woman next to him is also smiling.

Shoo Bee DOOM

A band is performing on a stage. The stage is lit with bright green spotlights. There are five band members visible: a guitarist on the left, a saxophone player, a drummer in the background, a lead singer in the center, and another guitarist on the right. The lead singer is a woman with long dark hair, wearing a black dress, and she is holding a microphone. The guitarist on the right is wearing a black jacket and a cap. The saxophone player is wearing a black jacket. The drummer is wearing a white shirt. The guitarist on the left is wearing a black jacket and a cap.

Swing meets Metal

Who are we?

We are Shoo Bee Doom, and we play brass metal. Back in the ancient days of 2023, we started with a mission: to combine the grooves of swing music with the heaviness of metal to create something truly unique.

Let us show you our take on a genre that has heard (almost) everything, and whip both young and old into a frenzy with our devilish grooves and fiery performances.

Why this Booklet?

Because we want to put on a show for you! This is our way of showing that we play hard onstage, work hard offstage, and go above and beyond. An email is easily forgotten, but this—hopefully—will be remembered.

Are you not entertained already?

No Loud Stages, No Feedback

We've run many shows and seen it all. Controlling stage volume is key to delivering a professional performance. We come equipped with in-ear monitoring, electric drums, and digital instruments—no monitors, no feedback, and minimal soundchecks. We show up, you get our signals, and we're ready to play.

On-Time, Onstage, and On Schedule

Our shows are meticulously planned down to the minute. With click tracks and a custom light show, we stay perfectly in sync. If you ask for a 45 minute set, you'll get exactly that. Delays? Only as guitar effects.

Quick Changeovers, Smooth Transitions

We understand that fans come for the music, not to watch stagehands. That's why we've streamlined our setup—just two racks on stage, and we're ready to go in five minutes, keeping everything on schedule and the fans entertained.
