

UP – Urban Project

*Contemporary sound, relevant, beautiful, fragile, contradictory.
Psycho Pop.*

This project stands for humility in melody parts and a constant search for pop identities. The first EP “White Lies” from URBANproject has been discussed and reviewed positively by the music mag “guitar & bass” in December 2016: “The songs are rousing, alternative and independent in the best sense of the word. Their music is complex with surprising parts and beautiful melodies and sounds.”

Since 2015 the creative brains of URBANproject’s Pop Laboratory are guitarist & songwriter Urban Elsaesser and Yen Anetzberger (vocals / lyrics). Both describe their songs as acoustic-electric impulses, big melancholy, hearing fears, accepted uncertainty - and quietly falling leaves play a role: “It’s a mixture of gritty and dreamy melodies with stories of love and fear - with daring vocal parts - sometimes conventional, even spiritual, fascinating, detailed, dark and serene at the same time”.

Current Line-up (2017): Urban Elsässer (guitar), | Yen Anetzberger (vocals) | Markus Proske (bass) | Dario Huppertz (drums) | Darius Heid (keys) | Robert Scholtes (keys, piano) | Joy Schmitt (backings, add. vocals)
