MUSICAN- FOODIE- TRAVELLER

Vizi is a producer, songwriter and singer. He is known as a guitarist and live looper, but deep down he is a bass player . He was a member of many bands until 2012 when he took part in The Voice of Romania and became known in the whole country as a singer. In 2014 and 2022, Vizi competed in the Eurovision National Selection semifinals and finals, both as a singer and as a songwriter. Currently he is releasing original songs, collaborating with local and international artists, he is a member of the production team at HaHaHa Production, composing soundtracks for movies and theatre plays, commercials and everything music-related. His original songs are influenced by pop, guitar pop, soul, R&B

Vizi's music blends acoustic pop with vivid storytelling, striking a chord with listeners on a deeply emotive level. His music, much like Polaroid photos, captures raw, timeless moments from his life, rendering them into songs that resonate with authenticity and emotional depth.

Music genre: live looping, guitar pop, acoustic pop, singer-songwriter

As a songwriter and producer, Vizi engages in collaborations with prominent figures in the Romanian music industry, contributing to the creation of several chart-topping hits. His professional reach extends to international partnerships with artists from Hungary, Poland, Germany, and beyond.
Vizi's portfolio extends beyond the realm of music production, encompassing partnerships with multinational brands such as Pepsi and Milka, where he lends his expertise to the advertising music sphere. Recognizing the distinct dynamics inherent in collaborating with marketing teams, he adeptly tailors his communication and creative strategies to align with the objectives and language of each project, ensuring seamless integration and impactful results.
