Press Text

With “We Are Alive”, Luna Heart & Miru present an emotional pop rock song with cinematic intensity and a strong empowerment message.

The song tells a story of inner strength, survival and the moment when pain begins to transform into power again. The English lyrics work with vivid images such as fire, darkness, scars, heartbeat and voice. This creates a track that begins in vulnerability and grows into a clear and powerful statement: We are still here. We rise again. We are alive.

Musically, “We Are Alive” combines emotional pop rock energy with a hymn like character and atmospheric depth. The changing voices give the song a dialog driven tension and intensify the feeling of struggle, hope and liberation.

The track is suitable for radio, web radio, pop rock formats, international playlists and sync placements such as film, TV, trailers, series and emotional campaigns.

Short Description

“We Are Alive” is a powerful English language pop rock song about strength, hope and rising again after difficult times. Emotional, cinematic and carried by a clear female power message.

Editorial Use

The song can be presented as an emotional empowerment anthem, a modern pop rock track or a cinematic motivational song. It is especially suitable for topics related to strength, new beginnings, self empowerment and hope.
