WHO WE ARE

When we linked up, there was no masterplan. Just four musicians hungry for the music. Killer hooks, honest tracks, and the kind of energy you just can't fake.
That's how Last Minute Panic started.
We rep the sounds that shaped us and pull them into the now, with more punch, more bounce, and our own twist.
Everything we drop is 100% DIY. No labels, no AI, no shortcuts.
From the first idea in the rehearsal room to the final touch on the mix, it's all us.
