The Thursday Evening Band is a group of five music enthusiasts, all of which could already collect a long experience in various music genres.

From left to right:	Willi Lemke	Bass
	József „Herr Weber“ Takács	Drums
	Jessica „Jessi“ Mäkert	Vocals
	Georg "Schorsch" Houben	Sax, Blues Harp, Vocals
	Bernd Schuller	Guitar, Vocals

The bandwidth of the experiences coming from the different music genres is showing also in the band's repertoire.

The program picks up known songs from the genres Pop, Rock, Blues and Jazz to present them in an unusual way ... little surprises are indeed intended.

The Thursday Evening Band gently puts an own stamp onto the songs of the program and creates an atmosphere which servers all audiences, the music addicted audience in the first row as well as those ones who enjoy music as a pleasing company to their conversations.

The Thursday Evening Band was established in 2011 in Aachen and since then consequently expands its music spectrum. Due to the band's setup a unique sound is created, which appears very light and rhythmic.
