

Press release

Acrid shouts and growls, matched with powerful clean-vocals, impulsive riffs, rousing melodies, catchy hooklines and massive drums – the sound of the 5-headed band from Nuremberg, Germany, is versatile, but always considered to never overstrain the listener, yet more likely to electrify them straightaway.

With their mix of Melodic Metal, groovy Hardcore and classical Post- and Metalcore-Arrangements, toRyse takes their own way apart from the “faster, lower and rougher”-path, which the Metal-Scene seems to follow these days.

Just like their music, the bands’ name can also be classified as versatile, as the name doesn’t seek for a defined meaning, but rather leaves room for one’s interpretation.

Since their formation back in 2014, the band experienced many setbacks: A lot of line-up changes consistently thwarted the band, postponed live and studio-plans indefinitely and caused a lot of anger and frustration for every member. But giving in never was an option, so despite all resistance, they already managed to draw supraregional attention to themselves. Audience and hosts could always be persuaded and thrilled with authentic and energetic shows.

This chapter will finally continue in 2018: With a new line-up, new vocal-style and new EP up their sleeves, toRyse will return stronger than ever - toRyse is back!
