

Artist Bio

Currently residing in Cologne, Germany is the gifted singer-songwriter and guitarist, Nik Novakovic. Having always held a close connection and deep appreciation for music, Novakovic first picked up the guitar as a young teenager and later went on to play in several successful bands such as, KandaKodza!Nebojsa and StarfishPrime.

With such ease, Novakovic blends a variety of styles and influences to create his own signature indie-folk sound. From the grunge sounds of the early 1990s to the raw and raspy influence of Tom Waits - Novakovic channels his various sources of inspiration into his own unique style. His voice carries with it a warm and deeply intimate tone, which makes him stand out in today's music landscape. Every line and hook he sings carries with it a mesmerizing tone that can be experienced first hand in his brand new track, "Rocky Roads To Love."

Thanks to his soulful melodies and emotive lyrics, Novakovic has successfully connected with audiences from across the world as he continues to share his exceptional style and sound.
