

FIRKIN - Music On. Smiles Up.

The Hungarian Grammy Award and Gold Record - winning Firkin have played over 800 concerts in 18 countries in 17 years CAN, FR, UK, CH, ES, NL, BE, DE, IT, AT, CZ, PL, SRB, SLO, SK, RO, UA, HU.

The band has become an internationally recognized, popular band with a loyal fan base, which is no wonder, as their concerts are a real celebration, with a great party atmosphere and quality music. The result of their sincere and friendly relationship with the audience is the ever-expanding Firkin Family.

Firkin has performed with its own shows at renowned venues, such as the Palace of Art in Hungary and the Sziget Festival, on major stages of prestigious festivals abroad, such as:

The 2018 album (We Are The Ones) has been featured in the international TOP 10 charts in several places, and according to the editorial opinion of Folk'n'Rock (USA), it has become the Best Album of the Year.

In 2019, the band took part in an international anniversary tour, which started on the A38 Boat in Budapest with a "loud" and an acoustic concert with TV recording.

In February 2020, Firkin came out with a single in Hungarian. During the epidemic, the band met international requests: they wrote a song for a British film music agency and an instrumental music as a joint project with an Italian band.

During the summer, the band continued their Hold My Beer Tour, which started at the beginning of the year and was crowned by a big concert in Budapest (Müpa), before the new closures.

In 2021, the German band Saltatio Mortis released a compilation album (Aus Fremden Federn) featuring a remake of the band Firkin (Bread And Games), in the company of several famous bands such as Russkaja, Shandmaul, Versengold, Subway To Sally, Kissin ' Dynamite. In this year, under the care of Hungarian and German producers - the renewed Firkin will be releasing new songs and clips, which will lead the album to be released in 2022 and the tour that will follow. A Still Alive! video clip from the latest song won 6 international film awards and 6 nominations: https://youtu.be/_tq1vYy3ZUg

The singles "Song of the Sailor" and "For A Life" were released in 2022.

In 2023, at the peak of their creative power, the band released their new album 'Spice It Up' at Drakkar Entertainment (Soulfood/Believe). At the Rockharz Festival 2023 the band started his Album Release Tour.

In 2024 the band focused on their Hungarian audience, releasing two albums in Hungarian: one was a children's musical (Rumini), and the other an authentic Firkin album titled 'Kocsmadalok' (Pub Songs).

In 2025, the band won Hungary's highest music award, the Fonogram Award (often referred to as the Hungarian Grammy Awards), for the second time!

In 2026, the Polish-language version of the family-musical was released under the title Rumini na Lustrzanej Wyspie. Earlier this year, the band was also selected as one of the contestants on the Hungarian TV show A DAL.
