

JOE JOE

- Presskit

BIO

JoeJoe is here and he's going crazy! He's mixing pop-punk with everything imaginable: metal, pop, rap, trap—anything he can conjure up.

Formerly the lead singer, songwriter, and guitarist for Suffer and Anima Above, JoeJoe earned a respectable following in Berlin's underground alternative metal scene. Now, he's embarking on a solo project that ventures into uncharted territory, blending diverse genres and styles.

Expect everything from emotional riffs and danceable beats to epic orchestral arrangements. Imagine the pop-punk energy of MGK and Sueco, the catchiness of Blink 182, infused with the intensity of alternative metal

„Give it a shot!“
