WHAT OTHERS SAY

"An impassioned and brutally cathartic record rich in emotion and energy that shows off havoc and harmony in all the right places."
- Karla Harris (When The Horn Blows)

"THEY ARE FUCKING AWESOME!"
- Boris Pelekh (Gogol Bordello, Hey Guy)

"The powerful song Jericho, Jericho! demonstrates how intense this album is. But even on a slow day as described in Sleep Or Talk, COLORWAVE is everything but boring. The band is definitely a find with this album!"

WHAT OTHERS SAY

"[...]creating the perfect platform for Ginny's vocals which prove that female-fronted Rock deserve a place in the Alt Rock genre; and that place is right at the top of the charts."

- Amelia Vandergast (AnR Factory)

"MOST HARD WORKING BAND IN THE BUSINESS!"

- Daniel Fleck (B13, Leipzig/GER)

"Guano Apes and Paramore have become too poppy, Lacey Sturm left Flyleaf, and we haven't heard anything from Halestorm lately either.
If you've lost your hope in real women's power... don't you worry no more!"

ABOUT

From outset, COLORWAVE was intended as boundless and borderless. The London/Cologne-based band fiercely present bold guitar sounds and brassy lyrics to frame the resounding defiance of present-day punk. Fireball vocals whip-up a stirring and anarchic energy, unhinged from category. They thump-out in the space between Alternative Rock, Post Punk, and Garage Rock; themselves drawn to sounds from Marmozets, Calva Louise, and Royal Blood.

The core ethos feeding the band's all-embracing spirit is expressed plainly: "We're not just here to make sure people are 'having a great time' and 'escape for a moment'. COLORWAVE is about sharing experience, about honesty - about tough love.". They speak to all, the wildly weird, those wonderfully wicked, and every jagged crevice in-between. The soul of that message runs its veins through their 2019 debut album NOMADS.

Nothing with meaning is simple, and nor are the band's roots: COLORWAVE first formed 2015 in Enschede, NL. Borderless is value in action. Today, Ginny, Flo and Jan are based in London and Cologne.

They have been strutting through the German and Dutch underground scene to inspire and uproot any and all drawn to rapturous dance and song. A mega-milestone marked 2019 Campusfestival Mittweida: United, fans would belt-out COLORWAVE lyrics back to a dazzled and gratified band. Parallel scenes followed them in support shows for Boris Pelekh's Hey Guy, Alice Merton, and Dilana.

The push for growth of expression and perspective is an enduring theme for the band.
Most recently, this spark for further frontiers combined with the enormous energy boost they gathered during the NOMADS fall tour lead COLORWAVE to convert all of this raw emotion into fresh material, making them take a leap towards their essential sound.

Wired-up and ready to meld with electric crowds, COLORWAVE are stacked for a romping 3 week spring tour across UK, FR and GER. COLORWAVE will take with them hardy new material while speaking truth to power. Gritty new releases are to be expected in March and May 2020. As spring returns, pump your feet to life and meet the band on tour!
