

Band Biography

Noahs Boat is a Berlin based songwriter and producer who has taken part in numerous music projects throughout his career. He first became interested in music as a child but it wasn't until his twentieth birthday that his music interest became a passion and he began to develop his own unique musical style.

In the summer of 2011, Noahs Boat arose when he turned from traditional analog songwriting to digital computer production. As Noahs Boat, he began to weave songs from an ether of classical guitars, string arrangements and atmospheric beats.

When asked, he describes his music as 'experimental downtempo', which still has the energy to make his audience move to its beat. Especially to those songs written in collaboration with a diverse group of international singers and musicians.
