The Blind Dog Mayer Group

VERSATILE. AUTHENTIC. UNIQUE.

Top-Notch Rough ‘n’ Rockin' Blues

Some play the blues; others live it. And then there are those who bring it to the stage with such force that they leave no stone unturned.

Winner of the German Rock & Pop Award for “Best Blues Rock Band 2025”, the band led by frontman Blind Dog Mayer is what happens when over 25 years of stage experience meets pure, explosive passion for playing. We’re not talking about tame, standard rhythms here—we’re talking about blues that takes no prisoners.

Dirty – Honest – Rousing – that’s how you can describe their sound!

Forget everything you know about “tired” blues. The Blind Dog Mayer Group’s repertoire is a highly potent fuel mix of:

- Dirty harmonica blues
- Dusty hard boogie
- Danceable Texas Blues 'n Roll
- Brand-new original songs that catapult the genre into the year 2026 with influences from British blues and a ’70s vibe.

Singer and harmonica player Blind Dog Mayer has been a fixture on the international blues scene for a quarter of a century. With contributions to 15 productions and chart placements (IBBA UK / Amazon Blues Charts), he is a veteran who knows his craft. His list of collaborators reads like a “Who’s Who” of the blues. He has shared festival lineups with icons such as: Robert Cray • Canned Heat • Walter Trout • Klaus “Major” Heuser (ex-BAP) • Glenn Hughes • Jimmie Vaughan • Steven Seagal • Al Di Meola • Erja Lyytinen • Thorbjørn Risager, and many more.

His current productions with international stars such as Andrea De Luca (IT), Grammy-nominated Anthony Geraci (USA), and Angel Ocasio Jr. (Cash’s Juke Joint, USA) are also making waves—Mayer delivers quality.

He is backed by the scene's most powerful groove section: Marco Schmieden (drums) and Michael Jung (bass) provide the foundation. On guitar is Dirk Lenz. He plays the blues like few others in his field. He also fires off heavy rock riffs off the cuff as if there were no tomorrow. His consistently highly emotional and energetic playing captivates every audience. A guitarist in a class of his own, he perfectly complements Mayer's powerful vocals and takes the band to the next level.

For promoters, the band is a guarantee of "the best atmosphere in the audience."

Why should you book The Blind Dog Mayer Group? - Because the numbers and reactions speak for themselves:

- Support act: for Erja Lyytinen (FIN) at the Blues Club Luxembourg 2026
- Guaranteed success: "Full House" at the renowned Sang a Klang (Luxembourg, Blues 'n Jazz Rallye 2025).
- Headliner status: Acclaimed top act at the Dieb' Rock & Blues Festival (France).
- Seal of quality: Current winner of the German Rock & Pop Award 2025.

Whether it's a club gig or a major festival lineup: We deliver a show that's entertaining, energetic, and musically top-notch. We don't just bring instruments - we bring an atmosphere that lasts.

"Real guys, real rough 'n' rockin' blues, a real experience."—Experience the best blues-rock band of the year live!

Press Reviews:

>> "A true celebration of blues-rock... an incredibly strong overall performance... the band really lets loose." <<
(Neckbreaker Magazine)

>> "We like to showcase the diversity of the blues in our set," Blind Dog Mayer once said in an interview about one of his earlier bands. It's okay to rock out, but the focus is on blues-rock. This summary also applies to the current lineup of the Saarland-based blues harp player and singer. And with this group, he has secured a prominent spot on the 2025 blues-rock calendar by winning the 43rd German Rock & Pop Award. The Blind Dog Mayer Group prevailed in the "Best Blues Rock Band" category, thereby receiving one of the German music scene's most widely recognized seals of quality. <<
