Kurna Cronin is a unique Australian folk artist who tours globally performing his swag of deep and captivating songs. Predominately performing with his full band ensemble rooted in the folk tradition, he is an exciting artist and entertainer who is always seeking to push the genre to new heights.

His artistry in combining emotive soundscapes with intelligent and emotive lyrics in the tradition of folk troubadours who are storytellers first and foremost demonstrates a maturity and an ingenuity beyond his years. In the past years Cronin has toured Europe and Australia extensively, from small intimate venues to some of the largest festivals in Australia, Germany, Netherlands, Sweden, Estonia, Italy and even Russia.

With numerous songwriting and performance awards including Folk Alliance Australia Young Artist Of The Year, ARBA Roots Album Of The Year, National Folk Festival Youth Award, FLMA Best Acoustic Act and the SAM Live Music Award Cronin's extensive songwriting experience, relentless international touring schedule and artistic approach have him regarded as a truly unique artist well poised to keep folk moving into the future.

Cronin's unique style of story telling infused folk-rock has seen him record and produce a collection of sonically varying albums in studios throughout the world with engineers and producers including Guy Gray (Midnight Oil, INXS, Rolling Stones), Jordan Power (Bruce Springsteen, U2, Angus & Julie Stone).

Cronin's knack for timeless sentiment and rich imagery in his songwriting is palpable as he combines the best, most intimate aspects of the acoustic genre with an inventive and experimental modern approach. His most recent album Aloft In Blue explores some of the deepest existential concerns of our time coupled with lush and emotive soundscapes cementing Cronin as an artist for this moment and setting him at the cutting edge of contemporary folk.
