

Caro Kelley is a Munich-based singer and pianist originally from Dayton, Ohio. Caro has been working as a musician in Munich since 2018, performing and teaching throughout the city and Bavaria as well as working as a studio musician. She is known for her vocal improvisation and skillful harmonies, as well as a commanding stage presence. Caro has been featured as the Süddeutsche Zeitung's "Band der Woche" and has played many shows and festivals throughout Munich, including at The Roofs Festival at the Olympiapark, StuStaCulum, and the University Sommerfest. In November 2022 she was featured in the online festival Sound of Munich Now in collaboration with Feuerwerk and the Süddeutsche Zeitung.

Caro released her debut EP in 2021 and followed it up in 2022 with her debut album "Playroom," which was funded by the Initiative Musik. In December 2022 "Playroom" won her 5 awards at the 2022 Deutscher Rock & Pop Preis, including Best Pop Singer, Best Pop Album, and Song of the Year.
