Pete Rode: Guitar

Biography:

The German thrash metal band Mortal Peril was found in 2010 by Jonas Linnartz (Drums) and Jan Radermacher (Bass/Vocals). The first EP „Of black days and cruel alliances“ was released in 2012. After a few line up changes the debut album „Walking on hellish trails“ was presented in 2015 by their current line up consisting the founders Jan and Jonas and the guitarists Mr. Greene and Pete Rode. Now in 2016 the second album named „The legacy of war“ will be released by thrashers from Cologne.

Most of the bands live experiences were made on countless gigs in the area around Cologne and Bonn (for example at the Cologne Metal Festival) but as well as support act for the US thrasher of Lich King on their Germany tour.

The musical style is mostly influenced by the eighties thrash metal. But the boys also use to mix up their heavy thrash attacks with melodic twin guitars and elements of doom.
