

ICEMO

Modern German Rock from Stuttgart, Germany

Featuring the Single "Falsch Abgebogen"

Powerful Rock. Honest Stories. No Borders.

ICEMO is a female-fronted rock band from Stuttgart, Germany, known for combining powerful vocals, memorable melodies, and emotionally driven songwriting. Since forming in 2015, ICEMO has steadily grown its audience through authentic songwriting, energetic live performances, and a series of independent releases, culminating in the 2026 album "Redebedarf". With a sound that blends modern rock, alternative influences, and anthemic hooks, ICEMO creates music that is both relatable and energetic. Led by vocalist Katja Green, the band connects with audiences through honest storytelling, powerful performances, and songs that resonate beyond language barriers.

With growing international recognition and recent radio interest generated by the single "Falsch Abgebogen", ICEMO is bringing its distinctive brand of modern German rock to audiences far beyond its home country.

ICEMO's music has also attracted attention beyond the modern rock scene. The Manchester-based old-school punk band V2 recorded a cover version of ICEMO's song "Du da drüben" ("I'm Here"), highlighting the versatility of the band's songwriting and its ability to connect with audiences across different musical genres.

Song Spotlight: "Falsch Abgebogen"

"Falsch Abgebogen" is one of ICEMO's most spontaneous and energetic songs to date. The track combines driving guitars, punk-inspired energy, and a memorable chorus with a message that everyone can relate to: life doesn't always go according to plan.

The song explores the wrong turns we all take, whether in relationships, careers, or personal decisions. Instead of focusing on regret, it encourages listeners to embrace their mistakes, learn from them, and keep moving forward.

Behind the Song

Sometimes the best songs happen when you stop trying too hard.

"Falsch Abgebogen" was written during a band songwriting weekend. After a creative session stalled and frustration started to build, vocalist Katja Green stepped away with a lyric idea she had stored on her phone for quite some time:

"Ich bin falsch abgebogen und aus der Kurve geflogen"
("I took a wrong turn and flew off the bend").

At the same time, the rest of the band began jamming on a fast-paced rock riff. When Katja returned, the lyrics and music immediately clicked. Within less than an hour, the foundation of "Falsch Abgebogen" was complete.

The band considers it one of the most natural and authentic songwriting experiences they have ever had.

Fun Facts

- "Falsch Abgebogen" was written in approximately one hour.
 - The song started with a single lyric line saved on a mobile phone.
 - What began as a frustrating writing session became one of the band's most energetic tracks.
 - The song's spontaneous energy was intentionally preserved during production.
 - The track was successfully promoted through Groover and attracted international radio interest.
