Green Blues Band

When Lithuanian Danny Lee arrived in Bremen in 2003 with a suitcase full of blues harps and the legendary GREEN Bullet Mic and met the enthusiastic blues guitarist Ole Morisse, the founding of the GREEN Blues Band was inevitable.

Interpretations of blues and rock classics by artists such as Jonny Lang, Kenny Wayne Shepherd, and Joe Bonamassa, as well as their own songs, have since thrilled the German and international blues scene. The CDs produced in 2011 and 2019 received positive international feedback from the Netherlands to the UK. With the relentlessly driving beat of drummer Rasmus Bruns (since 2013) and the earthy bass of Christian Figge, alias "Doc Snuggles" (since 2020), the Green Blues Band will inevitably get their valued audience on their feet and moving. Since late 2025, Alecia Zorina has been part of the lineup, bringing the band's sound to perfection with her keyboards and vocals.

Line Up:

Ole Morisse - vocals & guitars
Danny Lee – harmonicas
Alecia Zorina – keys & vocals
Christian Figge - bass & backing vocals
Rasmus Bruns - drums
