

THE PANIC POSTMAN

SMALL REVOLUTIONS

THE PANIC POSTMAN is Rock'n'Roll.

Rudimentary and raw. Naked and new. Casually and for two.

The new solo project of the musician Stefan Bauer is the return to his roots. As the Rock'n'Roll started in his parents basement, so it may now sound again.

The sound of the duo is carried only by the awesome screeching and effect loaded baritone guitar as well as the thundering sound of the drums. No bass and no compromises. The clanking groove carries the deep, throbbing chords and croaking solo passages. Rudimentary. Raw.

The voice of Stefan Bauer tells all sorts of stories from the world we live in. Love, hate, sex and the dark forces that define us every day. This and much more.

The debut EP "Small Revolutions" was released on 09/28/2018 as a digital release by RETTER DES ROCK RECORDS, the friendly label of his trust.

It mixes Stonerrock with Grunge, Rock'n'roll with guitar pop and it sounds like the decades of music history have been combined in one style.

That's the way THE PANIC POSTMAN sounds.
