

Cold Blood – Vampyrica

Music: Alejandro Cabrera Cuevas

Text: Cristina Grijalva

Take my heart out of its place and tell me
Is it still bleeding in your hand
Don't feel the aching anymore I'm numb inside
The cold rushing through my veins

It's been ages and I'm still waiting
Hiding messages around
Searching all over for someone to tell me
How did we become this senseless

Tell me why
Left alone again and again
Tell me about the times
Is it so hard to explain

In flames your love taken away
Couldn't even say goodbye
All the memories won't ever be erased
Coming back from time to time

Tell me stories tell me lies but tell me
How did we become detached
Heartless through a world of envy
Thinking only of the reward

Tell me why
Left alone again and again
Tell me about the times
Is it so hard to explain
Tell me why
Tell the truest lies
Is it so hard, is it so hard

Tear my heart to pieces
It's too late to save it
It will no longer be denied
Time passed by in silence
Bleeding from inside
Couldn't take it anymore

Take my heart out of its place and tell me
Is it still bleeding in your hand
Don't feel the aching anymore
The cold rushing through my veins
